Vikes! It's freshman year! It's hard getting used to this new school- it's so big and there are so many people in the halls. We're all too scared to ask the seniors for help- they're huge! It doesn't seem like we'll ever adjust to this school, but we're trying. The older kids say that we should try to get involved as soon as possible, so everyone's been joining a lot of clubs, sports, and other activities. I'm sure that our time at KP will be great!

Nicole, Julie, Dominique, Lael, and Trevanna party together in their geometry class. No one noticed the joker, Chris, in the background.
Mrs. Smestad's class threw a party for her to say thanks for a great year. Ben shows his appreciation by baking her some cupcakes.

Jess, Lindsay, and Nichole know how to relax after a long day's work. They are just takin' a break from their busy schedules before goin' back out. Keep smilin' girls!!
Jake, Ryan, and Dave are caught strikin' a pose at their first semi-formal. These guys look great after dancin' the night away.

Lookin' good girls! After havin' an awesome night at a sleepover, Ellie, Meg, and Maggie are lounging around on this beautiful day.

Gotcha! Andy and Brian are always jokin' around with everyone. They're always trying to find a new way to make people laugh, and it seems to be working.

Freshmen year is full of new events. All of these girls are gettin' ready to go to their first class competition. Even though we lost the competition, it was still tons of fun!

These lovely ladies have come together before going to the Freshmen Semi. Don't they all look beautiful! Nicole, Sarah, and Blair take a break from their studies to grab a bite to eat. Keep up the good work girls!

We're not the youngest ones anymore-
Sophomore year has officially begun!
It's great to feel comfortable with the school and to help out the frightened freshmen. We're more relaxed this year.
There's the sophomore semi, our first formal event at Lake Pearl. We've had to suffer through the MCAS, but they don't count towards graduation for us, so we have no worries. In fact, we don't have to worry about anything yet;
graduation is still really far away!

Anna, Ben, and Rob are gettin' ready to party all night long at one of the many school dances. These were great times at K.P.!

These two are just too precious! Bridget and Marissa look so adorable after spending their day at Six Flags.

Ah...Aren't they the just the cutest things? Katie,
Lindsay, and Katy are celebrating their 16th birthdays together.

The summer is filled with good times. Jackie, Lee, Amy, and Lauren are havin' tons of fun at one of the many pool parties they went to over the summer.

Class Competition is so much fun. Joanna and Lisa can't help but smile while they cheer on their classmates. Go Sophomores!

While celebrating Ellie's 16th birthday, Blair and Sarah make everyone laugh with their goofy faces. They always know how to have a great time.

Ryan and Kate are havin' way too much fun while chillin' at Kate's house. No one ever knows what they will do next!

Gotcha! Maryanne, Daylene, and Lauren take a break from their Bio-Class to catch up on the latest gossip that's going around the school.

Kalena, Trevanna, and Gwen are on a plane going to France for a class trip. They look great after being on the plane for so long!

Well, it's junior year already! We're upperclassmen now, and we have to start thinking about life after KP. The pressure's on us to keep our grades up and do well on the SAT's, but we're still able to find our own fun. We had the junior/senior prom and we also got to have Singled Out again this year! And now that most of us have our licenses, the open road holds nothing but opportunities for us.

Class of 2002

Junior Year

King Philip

Even though Courtney and Kristina are wearing the same color as everyone else around them, they still stand out. Their bright smiles lit up the prom's sea of red.

The best part of the prom is always seeing all the girls' beautiful dresses. The boys' black tuxes look great next to the brightly colored gowns!

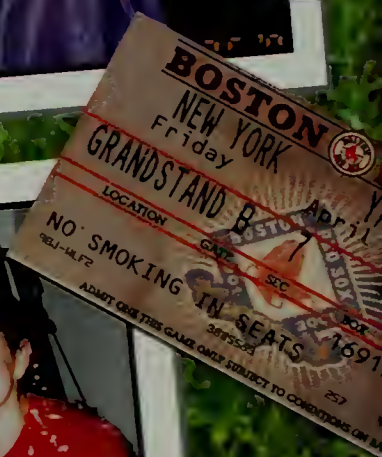

You can tell by Marguerite's face that she is deep in concentration. Marguerite is usually an easy-going girl, but when it comes to music or art, she becomes extremely focused.

Becca, Cathy, and Sarah celebrated Maggie's birthday by decorating their hair with confetti. They weren't so excited when they realized that they had to clean it up!

Mike, Andy, and Jake appeal to their classmates at Class Comp. There may not have been a lot of juniors present, but they still all competed well!

Kandice, Jen H., and Jen T. found some cuddly guys at the Disney Store. Even these mature ladies still love to snuggle with stuffed animals!

Katelyn shows the other girls on the ferry her sense of humor. The girls on the soccer team agreed that Katelyn's antics helped shake up the monotony of the long ferry ride.

Bob and Justin discover a new use for their desks during Mr. Kramer's class. Even Mr. Kramer had to admit that the boys were a funny sight.

The DECA ladies try to keep dry while admiring the beautiful view. They still got soaked, but the hot California sun dried them up fast.

We're finally seniors! It's true what all the upperclassmen always told us - it seems like just yesterday that we were the scared freshmen, terrified of the huge school and seniors. Now we're the ones who inspire fear! Not that we don't have fears of our own! College is on everyone's mind, and the stress is visible on all our faces. But we still know how to "Live It Up"! It's rare to see a senior without a smile on his or her face.

Class of 2002

Senior Year

King Philip

Katie and Amy take in a deep breath of fresh air out in the senior courtyard. They both feel, like many other seniors, that the courtyard is the best senior privilege. Going outside during lunch is a nice break from school life.

Eric and Shane discover a new look! Who knows, maybe someday sparkly hair and work shirts will be in style!

Shannon and Lauren have a bird's eye view of their friends at Six Flags. The exciting rides were no match for the fun-loving two! Andrea and Jen take a break from blowing up balloons at Andrea's 18th birthday. Even though she was surprised, Andrea still helped with decorations.

Stephanie, Lorna, and Jenna do their last-minute preparations for their first official picture as seniors. This was the first of many memorable events during senior year.

Ashleigh proves to Adam on his birthday that the best things come in small packages. He obviously enjoyed his gift- a hug!

Tim is a little more excited than Nate about being a senior. As the year progressed, however, even Nate became jubilant.

Al, Gregg, and Katy openly defy the hat rule on Crazy Hat/Hair Day. Luckily for them, the rule was temporarily suspended during Spirit Week. A new addition to Spirit Week, Crazy Hat/Hair Day was warmly received.

Maggie, Trevanna, Jess, and Kristin all lend a hand in beautifying the courtyard. Their efforts were greatly appreciated by their classmates once school started.

BIG SIS (right)

GO LONG! (below)

The freshmen, Mark Prentice and Sean McGill, take tips from their older brothers, Mike Prentice and Evan McGill, on passing, tackling, and all other aspects of the sport. Through the years, they have grown up to share a mutual love for the game.

Twin brothers, Jon and Pat, always know how to get into their older sister, Sarah Cronin's hair by wreaking havoc together at home. Even if they have different interests, they always know how to have a good laugh from time to time.

Big Brother, Big Sister

Big Brother, Big Sister

Freshmen and their senior siblings have a unique relationship. Seniors guide their younger brothers or sisters academically and athletically, while watching their younger siblings strive to succeed.

MARCHING TO THE SAME BEAT (left)

Kelley and Becca Brennan, and Matthew and Stacey Jillson all have found a mutual love for music over the years. Whether a part of the band or colorguard, they all know how much hard work it takes to be number one.

ADEPT ATHLETES (left)

These three letter-men, Andy Lovely, AJ Turner, and Steve Rieger, show their brothers, Daniel Lovely, Craig Turner, and Jeff Rieger, a thing or two about playing ball. In their free time they enjoy practicing against each other in an attempt to improve their skills.

Brian and Pamela Dugdale, Scott and Lael Royce, and Dave and Diandra DeBlasio flash the DECA diamond sign. The seniors can appreciate all this symbol stands for and maybe one day, their siblings can understand the dedication this course takes as well.

They are, always seem to have an unbreakable bond between them. These friends, Heather and Jennifer Gaudioso, Amy and Caitlin Kenney, and others as they capture yet another memorable moment.

Glowing with pride, Elin Wilcox, Dominique Werboff, and Lisa McPherson are all dressed up for their sixth grade graduation. They will always remember their time at Norfolk Elementary.

BRING IT ON (right)
Corey True and Christine Muse are ready to take on anyone! The skills they learned in this class will come in handy in the future.

Remember When?

Mr. Pickering's 4th grade class brings back fond memories of elementary school. Those nostalgic years saw the beginnings of the close friendships we have at King Philip today.

Looking absolutely delightful, Kalena Coulsey, Emily Holt, and Ellie Straw pose for their first picture as high schoolers! Many exciting experiences await them in the years to come.

Look How They've Changed!

Dave Arvidson, Andrea Demone and Mike Shruhan loved to play make believe. This was one way they could show it in school without getting in trouble.

WE MADE IT! (right)

Kathryn Astley and Kate Small are very happy; they're on their way to pro soccer.

RECESS (below)

Amanda Vogan, Lindsay Corrigan, Amy Carr, and Nichole McElroy loved catching up on their day. This was their favorite part of elementary school.

BEST BUDS (right)
Colleen McGuire will never be able to get rid of Steve Rieger. They have been friends for so long, you could consider them brother and sister.

OVER HERE! (far right)
Maggie Church stands there and laughs as Jay Olivieri tries walking with his eyes closed.

THREE AMIGOS (right)
They all look sweet and innocent. What could Andy Koziol, Andy Neviackas and Jeff Litvin possibly have in that dirt hole?

CHERUBS (far right)
Patti Quick and Kristen Stewart have been friends ever since kindergarten, to be exact. They've never stopped being silly together.

Remember When?

Dressed in her snazzy Halloween outfit, Kate Small maps out the best route to get the most candy. This is her all time favorite holiday!

READY, SET, GO! (below)
Rob Tuveson and Mark Stoddard couldn't wait to get their licenses. Being at the race track was a good starting point for the boys!

IN CONTROL (below)
Things just never seem to change. Dave DeBlasio looks very prepared. He was born a natural leader and ready to take on the world!

Way back in elementary school, these girls loved to play dress up. The urge to show off their inner selves never seemed to fade away.

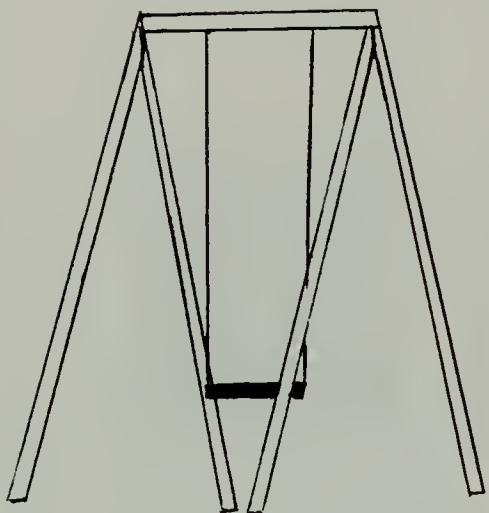

SISTER, SISTER! (left)
Sleepovers are the best; even if it is with your older sister. Lauren Tangstrom and her sister loved to watch movies together on school nights. This was one person mom couldn't say no to.

Katie Baker, Amy Avitabile, and Christine Albert are ready to satisfy their candy cravings while trick or treating. The trio found that they could make a great candy-gathering team when they went out together.

Remember When?

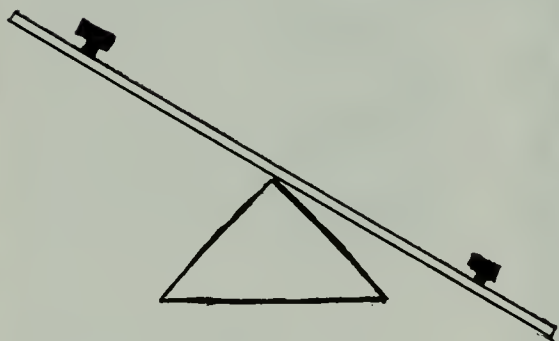

FRIENDS FOREVER (below)
Long time friends, Kate Blair and Heidi Murphy, passed the time giggling and playing. Even today a good time for them consists of hours and hours of laughing on end.

KINDERGARTEN BLUES (right)
Colleen McGuire, Dave DeBlasio, and Jim Renner look as if they aren't too sure if they liked their first day at school. Today, they often wish they could go back to those days of coloring, snacks, and naptime.

WORLD LEARNING (right)
In third grade, Ellie Straw and Heidi Krajewski's class studied Indians and their societies. After a long year of hard work, they were all treated to a pow wow where they were able to experience the Indian culture for themselves.

ZOOBALIZOO (below)
Keith Foster, Eric Schmall, Christina El-Far, Kate Reidel, Jess Rodio, Missy Taddeo, and Courtney Abbot all seem to be having a great time at their class trip to the Roger Williams Zoo.

NEED A HAND? (right)
In the midst of Andy Koziol's trying to wake up and get ready for school, it seems he has lost his arms! What is he to do?!

MS. ELAINE'S CLASS (right)
Throughout the years, we have all grown up together. The friendships we formed in pre-school are still alive today as we graduate from high school and move into the next chapter of our lives.

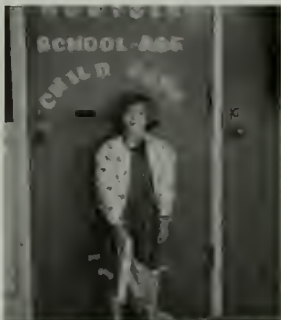

IS IT TIME YET?

Back when licenses were only for adults, we all used to play games and wait impatiently for the big yellow bus to turn the corner.

Amanda Vogan and Anna Iannetti wait to perform. To relieve anxiety, they practice their moves for the camera.

AHHH! (below)
Lael Roye yells for help when she sees Jon Lodge. Even now, girls come to learn that boys never outgrow torturing them.

BOYS WILL BE BOYS (below)
Joe Pender and Eric Cunnane entertain themselves during the long bus ride to New York on their eighth grade field trip. Throughout the years these boys have gone on many trips together and each trip seems to be better than the one before.

BEACH BUDS (left)
In the middle of a hot and humid summer, Kristy McKinney and Kristin McCann cool off with a trip to the beach. They got there early so they could soak up lots of rays.

WELL, HELLO THERE! (far left)

These girls are taking a quick break from a day of swimming. It's quite convenient having not only one, but two, lakes in Wrentham.

GREEN THUMB (right)
The lawn is in good hands. Cathy Doane always liked to feel helpful around the house by cutting the lawn with her kiddie lawnmower. If only all lawnmowers were as cost-efficient!

WIDE AWAKE (right)
Despite the late hour, Heidi Murphy shows no signs of tiring. She was known to all of her friends as the one who would never fall asleep first at sleepovers.

Every child has a favorite pillow. Lisa Galano and Becky Colcord just happen to share the same fondness towards this pillow with a face.

CIRCLE OF FRIENDS (right)
(clockwise from bottom) Corey True, Lee Brown, Jackie Murawski, Amy Kenney and Lauren Tangstrom make their friendship circle. These girls have gone through thick and thin together.

Chris Cerrato, Gregg Santabarbara and Jim Foulis compete to be the first noticed. Riding the bus is a big part of every kid's memories of elementary school.

PRETTY IN PINK (right)
Glowing with pride from her flawless performance, Amy Avitable savors this moment. Her dreams to be a dancer changed as she grew up, but her talent never faded.

Remember When?

Brian Cameron, Nate Cole, Pete Getty, Tom Daniel, Mark Stoddard and Derek Leavitt make a rowdy crowd. These boys never made a substitute's job any easier!

Kris McDonald, Ryan Shaughnessy, and Susanne Aulisio express their approval of school field trips. Students always enjoyed getting a break from the normal schedule inside school walls.

In the days when the homework load was a bit lighter, Lael Royce, Tracy Stella, Jake Cacciapaglia, Shane Jackson, and Dave Arvidson found the time to hang out after school.

A CHILD'S HEAVEN (above)
Without a care in the world, Nicole Armitage and Marissa Suchy lose themselves in the ball pit.

BIG LEAGUE, HERE WE COME! (above)
Softball is an activity that many girls take up for the first time in elementary school. This Norfolk softball team was full of girls who would bring superb talents to King Philip sports in the future.

GERONIMO! (left)
These 7th grade graduates celebrate their accomplishment by taking a leap of faith into the years to come.

Sophomores

Ladies' Night Out

On a ladies' night out Jess Colcord, Karaline Zeigler, and Rachel White go cruising in a limo around Boston. There, these girls shopped, grabbed dinner, chatted about old times and updated each other on the latest gossip. It's hard to believe that these girls will be driving themselves soon enough. Just imagine more confusion in the high school parking lot and many fewer open parking spaces.

Reason to Smile

Evan Harwood has reason to smile. The new school year is beginning and that means fun clubs, exciting activities, and most importantly basketball. Hopefully, Evan will be off his crutches soon enough to be the star of the team. If he is not, we can guarantee that he will be at every game cheering on the other sophomores.

Officers with Attitude

These four girls are full of awesome attitude. Rachel White, vice-president, Meredith Gaynor, president, Erin Ouimet, secretary, and Abby Wessman, treasurer, spend endless hours organizing events such as the sophomore semi and candy sales. They show endless pride for the Class of 2004.

A Wave of Steves

It must have been a popular year for the name Steven and it just so happens that we were able to catch up with two of the Steves in the class.

Steve Hamilton and Steve Casey are just a couple of the Steves in the sophomore class. These boys don't get lost in the waves of Steves. With their great personalities, they are always the center of attention.

The Candy Man

English class may be boring for Ryan Strickland. Luckily, he has hard candies to tide him over until the end of the period. Hopefully, all his hard work will pay off on test day and he will ace the test.

New Arrivals

Keri Abramowitz, Karlie Buck, and Tricia Gately take a break from science class. They know high school will only get harder, but all their hard work and determination will pay off in the years to come.

All by Himself

Mark Prentice sneaks in a smile while taking a major test in Spanish class. Receiving good grades is a requirement to be a part of the football team. He also studies hard because it is his goal in life to succeed.

2005 Leaders

President, Andrew Holmes is in charge of running the meetings and keeping the rest of his grade involved.

Diandra DeBlasio, vice president, speaks out to her class and publicizes the freshmen school events.

Kristin Keinz, treasurer, keeps track of the money and an accurate spending record. Secretary, Shannon Howard takes notes on the meetings and different events.

Four Heads

Andrew Holmes, Jessica Witschel, Ashley Prescott, and Ryan Gavrilles work together to solve a difficult problem. They are able to accomplish much more in a group rather than working individually.

Spirited Duo

Casey Gray and Kaitlyn Winter chill on a heater dressed in green and gold. These girls are the kind KP needs more of. They will help their grade win the battle of most spirited class in the future.

Student Services

The four guidance counselors of King Philip meet with each student on an individual basis during the four years that the student is at King Philip. Trevanna Grenfell, a senior, has had a lot of interaction with the guidance department. In her freshman year, she met with Mr. Keleher, her guidance counselor, to fix problems with her schedule. During her sophomore year, she met with her counselor to discuss a program to study abroad. Trevanna began to meet with her counselor more often during her junior year as they began to discuss her future. Now, Trevanna is a senior and she comes to guidance to discuss her plans for college and to receive help with her college applications. The guidance counselors of K.P. give every student individual attention and assist them in any way possible.

As the freshmen begin their journey through high school, they encounter many new challenges in English. The lessons of freshman year provide them with a solid base of knowledge that they can carry with them throughout high school and beyond. Grammar and vocabulary, for example, are carefully built throughout the four years. Although summer reading is not popular, these novels get the year off to a great start. Summer reading also helps students learn to organize their time. The varied works of literature throughout the year provide opportunities for students to sample the different genres, to be exposed to various literary techniques, and to learn about life in general. No matter which level or course, the Language Arts Department prepares our students well.

Mathematics isn't only sines, square roots, and fractions. It's also lots of fun. Pi Day, for example, is on March 14, in honor of Pi or 3.14. To celebrate this holiday, math students make posters and decorations showing their Pi Day spirit. The Mathematics Department holds a competition for the best Pi Day posters. Students spend a lot of time researching this special number to help make their posters original so that they will stand out from all the other projects. The best posters are displayed in the lobby for the entire school to enjoy. The department also sponsors math contests so that students who are talented in math can show off those skills. A pizza party for all the participants is a highlight of the year.

Students make different projects such as cakes, posters, mole stars, and the mole toss (right). This mole toss was made by juniors Heather Cassidy, Shannon Steele, and Kristina Cochrane.

Social Studies Department

The Social Studies department offers a wide variety of courses that students may take. They range from World Civilizations to Psychology and Modern World History to Economics. History is the most popular class taken by the students. An important event every year for all of the history students is History Day, which takes place during the fall. Students spend months researching topics and they choose how to present them in a creative fashion. Students can make exhibits, create documentaries, or act out plays or performances. The history teachers then choose the best projects to go on to a regional competition. The projects that continue to this level are improved by the students so that they are presentable at the next level. The next step is the state competition, and then the national. Other activities that are popular with students are court appearances, field trips to Newport and the Museum of Fine Arts, working at NERC (the social studies conference in Boston), carrying babies around to classes, and group showings of films like Schindler's List.

Every year King Philip's World Language classes enter the Foreign Language Poster contest. Every spring a new theme is chosen. All world language teachers assign the poster contest for a week-long project. Students work hard to think of creative ideas because they all want their posters to win. All the posters are hung in the front entrance of the school. For a few days judges walk through and closely examine each of the different posters and decide which one is the best. This person's poster is then sent to the national level, to compete with other students' posters.

Business

Department

The Business Department offers a wide variety of courses that provide students with a practical, working knowledge of the organization of business enterprises and the principles and procedures that are essential to the success of business enterprise. Students learn to use a variety of software packages that are necessary in today's world in order to succeed in high school, college, and in the students' future careers. The business teachers also prepare students for college. They help the students prepare for the transition from high school to college. This department also helps students in their future endeavors by teaching them fundamental computer skills that they can use for the rest of their lives. A very popular course at King Philip is Introduction to Word Processing/Keyboarding. This course is designed to enable students to learn traditional keying, formatting, and document production skills at the same time as developing proficiency using Microsoft Word. The Business Department prepares students for the future.

The Physical Education department offers programs that allow King Philip students to have a break from their hard school work each day. Freshmen and sophomores playing sports that they love, including basketball, flag football, soccer, and tennis. They receive a good work out to help them with their physical fitness. Teachers are assisted by gym leaders from the junior and senior classes. The gym leaders answer questions that the underclassmen may have and are good role models for the younger students in the gym classes. The Physical Education Department also offers a Health Education class to sophomores. In this class, students learn the benefits of a healthy diet and life-style. They also do many classroom exercises to learn about each other and themselves. King Philip students are able to take the skills that they learn in their gym and health classes and apply them to their everyday lives. They will maintain these skills and continue to use them as they grow older so that they will have very happy and healthy futures.

The Technology Department offers a wide variety of courses that teach students computer skills along with real world skills. A very popular class is this year's new Television Production class. Here, students create Wake Up Warriors, King Philip's very own weekly television show. The television production students creatively and visually report the morning announcements along with entertaining skits to brighten the days of King Philip students. Another popular class is the Autocad course. From this class, students learn many different aspects of the program that prepare them for a future in engineering or architecture. A new class this year is advertising. Students in this class decorate bulletin boards and create brochures for the many different classes, programs, and activities of King Philip. Other students are taking King Philip's new mission statement and preparing posters to help students understand what it's all about. The students in this class are being prepared for a future in advertising and design.

Fine

Arts

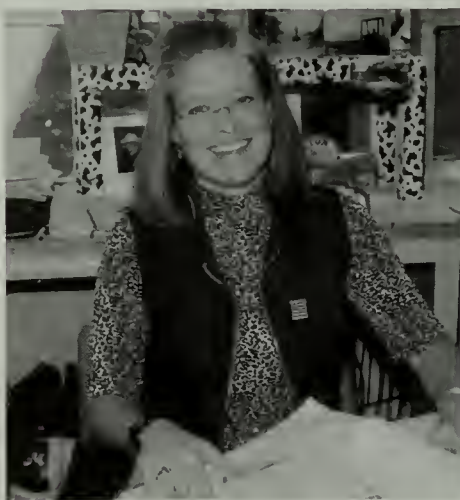

The Fine Arts Department of King Philip offers many programs that allow King Philip Students to show off their musical and artistic abilities. In chorus, for example, students perfect their vocal skills as they harmonize. In the many different art classes of King Philip, students are able to work to improve their artistic abilities. All of the students' hard work is displayed at the end of the year in one of our school's many shows. During Spirit Day, art students show their Spirit Projects. The students choose a subject and portray the spirit of it through their art. These projects have many different themes that include The Spirit of Summer, The Spirit of Toasted Marshmallows, or even The Spirit of David Bowie. The many seniors that take art courses at King Philip are able to show off a compilation of all the work that they have created during their four years at King Philip. Both students and faculty look forward to these shows at the end of the year. They enjoy the way the beautiful paintings, drawings, sculptures, and ceramic pieces brighten the halls of the high school.

Special

Education

The Special Education Department is incredibly helpful to students who require extra help with their school work and homework. The teachers offer strategies for studying and test taking while they reinforce the regular curriculum. While in resource support, teachers assist students in a variety of ways. In addition to giving extra help, they aid the students in planning their futures by helping them get ready for college. Having four to fifteen students per class allows each student to have the individual attention he or she needs.

The Special Education Department works hard to meet all the needs of students. Many of the students need extra help with their school work, but not always in the same subjects. Each teacher is knowledgeable in all subjects. The staff works hard to teach students what steps to take so that the students will then be able to finish their homework at home. The Special Education teachers and aides make sure to get to know each individual student so they can help each one achieve his or her potential at King Philip High School.

Additional areas for study have been added along with twelve computers with internet access. The MAC lab is used for math spreadsheets, English papers, and yearbook preparation. New books have been added to the collection for class projects as well as additional databases for research. Most days the media center is filled with students eagerly reading and searching, working to fulfill their educational goals.

The dance is over and everyone is too hyper to go home. You invite all your friends to go back to your house to continue a night of dancing and fun.

Slumber Party

After a fun filled night of dancing you want nothing more than to go home. Right? Wrong! Why not spend the night at a friend's house where you can talk about all the awesome things that happened.

Midnight Snack

You didn't think the food there would actually fill you up, did you? So you grab a bunch of friends and have someone drive you to the nearest restaurant where you can stuff your face.

What to Do! What to Do!

You get into your upper classman date's car and drive around all night because you can't figure out what to do.

ZZZZZZ...

You're exhausted. Your feet hurt from dancing all night. All you want to do is jump into your nice, comfortable, warm bed and go to sleep.

Meg Conley, Meg Fredrickson, Bridget Rasicot, and Kim Murdock get away from the guys for a minute to get a picture of just the girls. If these ladies couldn't find fun, they made their own.

Being a part of the talent show was one of the best parts about cheerleading at KP. After all the crazy hair-dos, Shana McElroy, Jill Malcolm, and Ca Smith get blown away standing in front of a fan.

You want fries with that?

Isn't it fun cooking, cleaning, and waiting on customers hand and foot? Umm sure it is...yea right! Food service is one of the worst jobs to have during the summer...even the tips are bad!

Don't touch that!

Taking time to run after kids, making sure they aren't a mess isn't fun. We'd all much rather be with friends than babysitting and taking attitude from kids!

Steamed or pressed?

Love the idea of cleaning someone else's dirty clothes? If you're like most, probably not. Dry cleaning is definitely the pits!

Where should I file this?

Remember all those summers you'd go to work with mom or dad in the office? "File this, put this away, type this up..." the boring tasks of office work are endless!

How can I help you?

Customer service, crazy hours, and annoying customers. These are the reasons why we hate retail. KP students know this feeling because of the dreaded Outlet Mall where so many of us work.

Great Things About the First Day of School

Missing You

You walk into school and see your friends out by their homerooms. You can't wait to go talk to them about the summer.

Who is in My Class?

You have your schedule. You fear that you don't know anyone in your class. But when you walk into the class it's full of your friends.

Sparse Classwork

There is nothing better than walking into class on the first few days of school and just listening to the teacher.

Yessss...

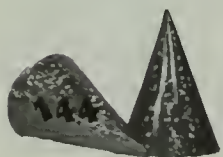

Getting all the classes you wanted for the year makes the year an awesome one.

One Less Day

As you end each day, it brings you one more day closer to the time you graduate. And that can be an awesome feeling.

Donate Blood

This might make you a little queasy, but giving blood is a great way to actually save a life!

Give Money

In any disaster, money is always needed to help the victims. Every penny counts!

Participate in a Fundraiser

When you work together you can get a lot done. Doing something fun for the benefit of others is always great.

Express Patriotism

Break out the good ol' red, white, and blue to show how proud you are of your country!

Honor Your Heroes

Those who fight for you and go above and beyond should always be honored and respected.

LIFE SAVERS (below)

Even though it's painful, Adam Ewer still gave blood to the Red Cross to help save lives at the blood drive. This year's blood drive set a record of participation at KP!

Hats for Hat Day

Baseball Hat

With baseball hats you can show off your favorite sports team or just look casual, which is exactly why they are a top choice for KP students!

Sombrero

Welcome to Mexico! Sombreros are so silly and fun to wear that they grab the attention of everyone in the room. Don't you just love being in the spotlight?!

Bandanna

With all the colors to choose from and the variety of ways to wear them, bandannas are definitely a popular way to show spirit during Spirit Week!

Cowboy Hat

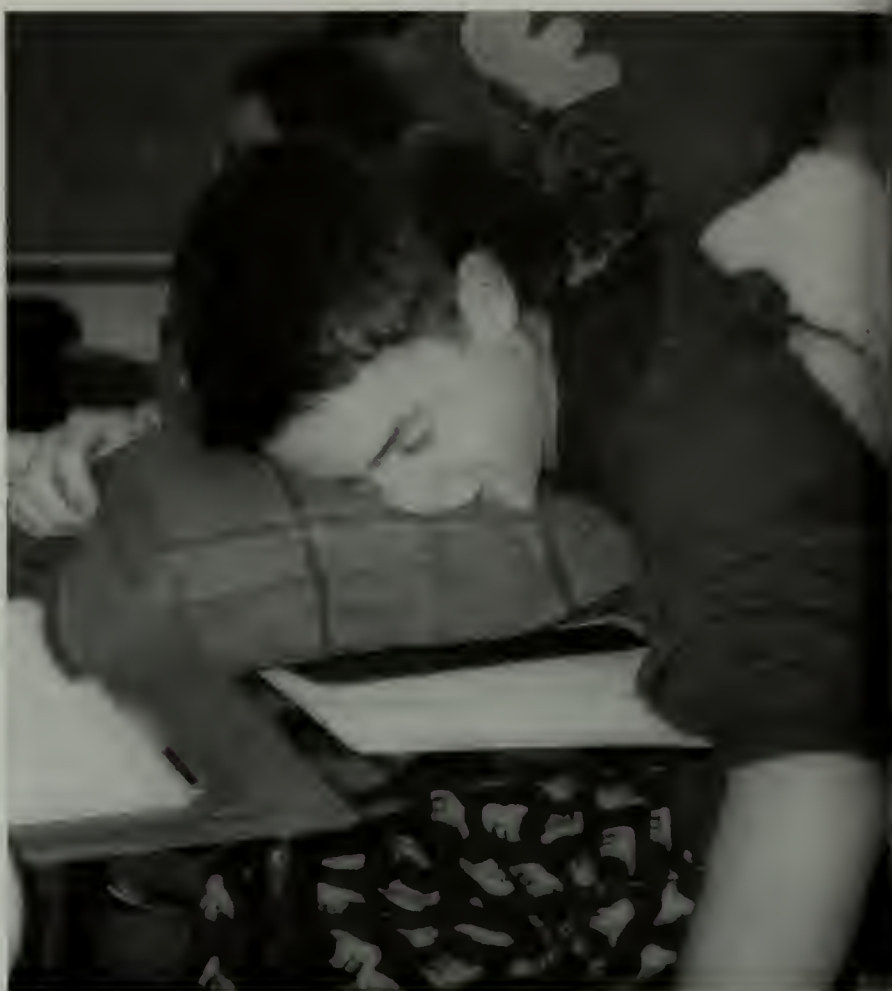

We've gone country! Normally in New England you don't see too many people in cowboy hats...but for this special occasion everyone goes western!

Wig

Looks like Hot Topic has been invaded! Many students wear colorful and crazy wigs expressing their true selves! Any random visitor on this day would think we've gone nuts!

ZZZZ... (below)

Pajama Day is definitely a favorite day of Spirit Week for many at KP. Bill Cobb especially loves Pajama Day. Perhaps he's getting a little too into it.

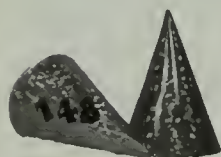

WHERE'S THE PIG ROAST? (above)
These Hawaiian ladies want to make sure the seniors win Spirit Week! They gave out leis and flowers to any senior who wasn't in colorful luau attire.

SMURFS (right)
Why do Jill Shiebler, Emily Bhatti, and Emily Hall look so happy yet seem so blue? It's because they are sophomores! Blue is the sophomore color for Class Colors Day and these three are happy to look like smurfs!

Hot Chocolate

A steaming cup of hot cocoa is sure to be a quick fix for any wind blown person.

Snuggle

Get up close and personal with your best friends in order to retain your body heat.

Bundle Up

Is that a person or a bundle of clothing? It doesn't matter so long as you're warm. Who needs style? Throw on everything you've got!

Jump in the Huddle

For the desperate and daring only. When all odds are against you, get on the field and jump in the huddle to keep your nose warm. Just be prepared to go long.

Cheer

A loud, boisterous voice and jumping up and down will keep any toes from becoming numb. It also adds to the excitement of the game.

Ways to Spend All Hallow's Eve

Trick-or-Treat!

Dressing up and going door to door getting candy is the highlight of Hallowe'en. No matter how old you get, it never stops being fun!

BOO!

Don't get scared!! Many people spent their Hallowe'en night nervously wandering through a haunted house. The infamous Spooky World was very popular this year!

Party Party!

Winning the costume contest has got to be one of the greatest Hallowe'en honors! So make sure you RSVP that party invitation so you get a chance to win!

Pass Out Candy

Don't feel like going out this year? Instead of getting the candy, you can give it away! Wait at your door for all the trick-or-treaters to come by and try not to scare them too much!

SCREAM!

If you aren't going anywhere on Hallowe'en, call up some friends, get together, and rent a horror movie! Chow down on the candy, sit close, and watch out for the monster under the couch!

PREPARATION FOR THE FUTURE (above)

Reactions from the Kids

WOOOW!!

You know you did a good job picking out gifts when your child unwraps his presents and his eyes begin to bulge and words like WOW and COOL come out his mouth. Doesn't it make you feel good?

It's ok! Don't Cry...

It's gotta hurt when your kid takes one look at you and bursts into tears. But don't worry, it probably wasn't personal.

Home?!

When you ask your child what she wants to do next and she answers with, "I wanna go home!," it's kind of disappointing.

Look at what they got!!

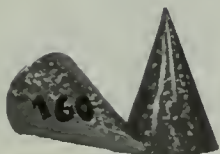

It's all going well; your kid is completely enthralled with his new toys until... he decides to take one look at what his friends got. You get dropped in 5 seconds and find yourself running across the gym chasing your kid. Fun, right?

I Promise I don't bite

Although most of the kids were extremely thrilled and hyper all day, there was the occasional child that was afraid to even speak. It was probably yours if you found yourself doing all the talking. Oh, and was that you who was playing with the cars more than the kids?

Things to do in the Snow

Ski Trip

Pack the car with all your equipment and get yourself to a ski resort. Get on the lift and enjoy an exciting ride down.

Ready, aim, fire!

Snowball fights are a great way to have a little playful fun!

Grab a sled

Not so good on the slopes? Well find a hill and a few friends. It may be tiresome to hike up the hill but the ride down is a thrill.

Hide out

Igloos are so much fun to make on a snow day. You and your friends can have a place to hide out and literally chill.

Angels

When you wake up in the morning and look out your window all you can see is snow. Get outside and throw yourself in the snow to make a snow angel.

Parade in Boston

Can you imagine being in the same place as 1 million other people just to see a small group of football players? Well, if you missed school on February 5th along with 350 other KP students, you probably don't have to imagine it!

Home of the Patriots

We are lucky enough to live so close to Foxboro Stadium. When the team got home after the Superbowl, many went to Foxboro to greet them.

All Decked Out?

In red, white, and blue that is! Fans went straight to the Pro Shop to get all the newest Pats' gear.

Get ready for Next Season

Because this has been a phenomenal season for the Patriots, you can only imagine what next year is going to be like. Some of the most dedicated Pats fans already have season tickets for 2002-3 and with the new stadium here, how can you not be psyched?

The Touchdown Dance

Tom Brady's shake of the hips and Ty Law's fancy foot work—you know you're a true Patriots fan when you can imitate the touchdown dances. By the way, whoever said white men can't dance was absolutely correct. (Just kidding Tom!)

Passion

News

With the new millennium has come a new era of outstanding achievement for King Philip's nationally renowned music program. This year, as in past years, the program's many ensembles have brought home countless awards, trophies, and medals, proving once again that King Philip's music students are among the most dedicated, hardworking, and talented in the country. Under the astute direction of Peter Tileston, the music program embodies the very ideal of excellence; and yet, neither Mr. Tileston nor his students allow themselves to stop and rest on their laurels. They are ever-prepared to press ahead to higher degrees of distinction, as articulated by the program's motto: "Never settle for your present level of achievement."

To list all the achievements of each of this year's ensembles would be tedious. So, instead, here are a few highlights:

In April 2001, the Indoor Percussion Ensemble traveled to Milwaukee to compete in the Winter Guard International Championship competition, where it had claimed the national championship in 2000. King Philip actually sent two different ensembles to compete in Milwaukee this year, an undertaking never before attempted in the long history of WGI. The marching ensemble performed the show They Are All Our Children Too, featuring music from the Broadway hit Miss Saigon; the concert group performed the famous Piano Concerto No. 2 by Rachmaninoff. Both groups received silver medals for their performances in Milwaukee.

The Winter Color Guard also competed at the national level in Milwaukee this year. Its floor show, which featured music from Prokofiev's Ivan the Terrible, had earned second place at the New England Scholastic Band Association championships earlier in April. This award is placed among dozens of others that have highlighted the group's decade-long history.

Also in April, the perennially successful Symphony Band performed at the legendary Symphony Hall in Boston. This honor is reserved for only those bands that have received gold medal ratings at the festivals held by the Massachusetts Instrumental and Choral Conductors' Association. The band has had the honor of playing at the Hall three times in as many years.

The Jazz Ensemble once again proved its preeminence as one of the finest jazz bands in New England. In addition to earning numerous gold medals at competitions in Norwood, Framingham, Waterford, CT, and at the University of New Hampshire, the band also gave an outstanding performance for the school in June when they performed along with notable jazz artists Susan Picillo and David Pope (a KP alumnus).

Meanwhile, King Philip's marching band—"the Pride and the Passion"—has maintained its status as the greatest marching band in the Northeast. With their 2001 field show, NUTCRACKER: From the Ballet to the Night Club, the marching band blended the classical beauty of Tchaikovsky's ballet music with the lively swing of Duke Ellington's jazz arrangements. The show was immensely popular with both audiences and adjudicators, earning the band its second consecutive championship at the Bands of America regional competition in Hempstead, New York. In November, the band traveled to Indianapolis for the Bands of America Grand National Championship competition, which no other Massachusetts band has ever attended. Despite its relatively small size, the band stunned audiences with its performances in the preliminary round as well as the semifinal round, once again living up to its moniker, "the little band that could."

What distinguishes the King Philip Music Program from other programs in the Northeast, perhaps in the entire country, is that it demonstrates excellence through all of its ensembles. Whereas another school may have an outstanding marching band, or another a fantastic symphony band, or another an outrageous color guard, King Philip has excelled in all of these arenas, consistently ranking among the top in any competitive organization. Its incredible success is truly a shining testament to the brilliance and fastidiousness of its instructors and to the passionate dedication and unsinkable spirit of its students.

The King Philip Winter Percussion Ensemble was incredible. Last year they started the year off capturing a platinum medal at the NESBA Conference at Salem High School. One of their biggest accomplishments that year was winning a silver medal at the national competition. They performed in Milwaukee at the World Guard International Conference. The percussion ensemble performance was called All of My Children, an excerpt from the musical Miss Saigon. Mr. Tileston led the winter percussion in all of its performances. This program took a great amount of time and effort but was certainly worth it in the end.

The King Philip Winter Guard is a talented group of girls even though it is a young team consisting of only seven seniors. Last year they competed at Salem High School and took home first place. They also competed in Eastern Massachusetts and won the bronze medal. Along with the winter percussion, winter guard competed at the national level. Dedication and much preparation enabled them to place fourth in the country. The World Guard International Conference was held in Milwaukee this year and lasted four days. Nicole Morrison was the instructor of winter guard last winter and will continue to direct the girls in the future.

The King Philip Marching Band is an award-winning group. They started the year off by capturing first place in Bellingham. They continued their winning streak here at King Philip and other local schools. Their spirits were high as they entered the state conference held in Framingham. After winning three rounds at that conference, they won the gold medal. Throughout their winning season, the band was held together by their instructor, Mr. Tileston. Along with him, were the talented and strong drum majors, Sarah Cronin and Adam Ewer. The band members also held a profitable fundraiser during the winter season where they sold holiday wreaths.

The King Philip Color Guard is a successful group. Throughout the fall season they practiced diligently by performing halftime shows at home football games. They worked many long hours during the fall season to prepare for the state conference and national competition. This year they performed with the Nutcracker theme. Each dressed in two costumes, pajamas and brightly colored leotards. They placed first at every local competition and they won the gold medal at the state conference in Framingham. At nationals they placed sixth in their division, proving that these girls are ready for any level of competition. The King Philip Color Guard was led by Nicole Morrison.

The gym teachers appreciate having student athletes help to assist them with their physical education classes. The junior and senior gym leaders influence the younger students. They encourage the students to have positive attitudes and to participate actively in the daily activities. After reading many essays about why the candidates would make good leaders, the gym teachers, Mr. Carneiro, Mr. Boucher, Mrs. Pfeffer, and Mrs. Smith, decide who meets the criteria of an effective gym leader. The decision is difficult, but in the end, the results are worth the hardships of making the decision. Juniors have the opportunity to return as gym leaders senior year. Seniors pass down their positions to the upcoming juniors. Being a gym leader is more than just fun and games; the position requires strong leadership qualities, skills that will be used throughout one's life.

LEO Club is a community service club at King Philip. It is the youth branch of the Lions Club, and through its program, students learn how they can benefit their community. Members are in charge of helping local organizations that need assistance. Some of the most important events that the LEOs run are the Senior Senior Prom, face-painting at Norfolk Day, and the Senior Citizen Holiday Party. LEO Club is an excellent way to become an active participant in the community.

Mrs. Gallagher,
Peer Leadership Advisor

Peer leadership is an organization dedicated to helping all students make the right choices, and to have fun with the choices they make. The members became involved with the local elementary schools by becoming pen pals with the sixth graders. Also, the members go to the elementary schools to speak with the kids about the pressures and challenges they will face in junior high and high school. One of the biggest events the club has is the Fun Night for the sixth grade students. Fun Night is filled with games and activities for the students to participate in. The members do a great job in setting an example for all the kids to look up to.

Student Council is a club that involves the student body as well as the community. This club starts the year off by organizing a freshman orientation. In November, they put Thanksgiving baskets together. During the holiday season, children in need come to this high school for a Senior Holiday Party. One of the highlights of the year is Singled Out, which is held around Valentine's Day. Throughout the year Student Council members organize dances, fundraisers, and school events to benefit the students and community. This club is an excellent way to become an active participant in and out of school.

National Honor Society is a very special part of King Philip. The members of N.H.S. are expected to live up to the qualities of scholarship, leadership, character and service. To be inducted into N.H.S. the student must be a junior or a senior and have a 3.3 grade point average. An application must be completed, and a faculty committee decides if the candidate should be inducted. Spring Captains

The spring captains of 2002 were elected by their teams at the end of the 2001 season. Being a captain is an honor that athletes strive for starting their freshman year. A captain has the qualities of sportsmanship, leadership, positive attitude and concern for his or her team. The spring captains possess all these qualities and more. They are friendly and outgoing, making them excellent role models. These qualities make it easy for their teammates to look to them in times of need. The spring captains not only set examples for their teams, but for all students and athletes in the school. The 2002 spring captains truly deserve these honors. They enjoy excellent reputations in their classes, in the school and in the Hockomock League. The quality of leadership is enhanced by these K. P. captains.

The softball team had an extraordinary year. Their dedication and determination were large factors in their many victories. They were led by senior captains Andrea Lyons and Laura Kraby. The consistency of junior Kate Coleman's accurate pitches greatly helped. Kristy Lamothe and Judy Cronin were always alert and aware while waiting to make a great play in the out-field. Heather Cassidy's ability to quickly field a ball and throw it to the first basewoman, Colleen McGuire, showed this season. The team was made up of mostly underclassmen and will therefore do very well in the upcoming seasons.

A New Beginning

Lacrosse

As the fall of 2000 arrived Mr. Rice received numerous requests from student athletes to form a lacrosse team. He did not let these students down. He, with the help of many parents, established boys' and girls' lacrosse teams. Although they were just club teams, a new sport was born at KP.

As the season began, the girls worked hard to learn the new game. None of the players had been members of a lacrosse organization before. The girls quickly perfected their skills and the season started off well.

On the other hand, having already played lacrosse the boys had an advantage. They worked hard to improve their skills and grew as a team. They had a very successful season and hope that their skills will improve even more next year.

Boys' Tennis

The 2001 boys' tennis team had a good season with a record of 6-10. The team was led by the senior captains Derek Darling and Mike Kraby. This year's 2002 team will be led by senior captains Gregg Santabarbara, Steve Rieger, and Andy Koziol. In addition to great leadership, the team also has the hard work and dedication of Chris Gibson, and Jeff Litvin to take the team to a winning season. One last element of this team is humor. This humor helped to keep everyone from getting stressed out. Boys' Spring Track

The 2001 boys' spring track team did very well last season. They went undefeated, with only one tie. The team was led by seniors like Joe McCormack, who excelled at the high jump, triple jump, the 100 and the 300, Brian Allaire, at the shot put, and Derek Rose, Brendan Halpin, and Mike McCullough. All of these boys continued the winning streak by coming in first in the Hockomock League for the second year in a row. It's up to this year's team to continue that tradition.

A Team to Remember

Girls' Spring Track

The 2001 girls' spring track team had a decent season with a record of 6 wins and 3 losses. The amazing talent of seniors like Stephanie Morris, Melissa Gray and Erin Johnson made all the difference this year. These seniors led the team to many victories and their efforts will not be put to waste in the upcoming season. Seniors like Nicole Magnuson, Blair Rainsford, Katelyn MacKenzie, and Katelyn Small are all ready to lead the team to many wins.

GIRLS' SOCCER (right)
Judy Cronin and Kristy Lamothe must have amazing leadership qualities. They, and Coach Massotti, led the girls to a division II state championship.

Fall Captains

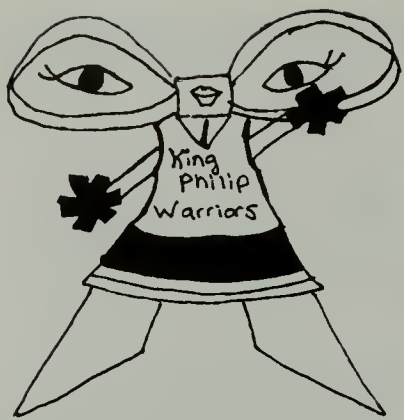

Thanks to the fall captains of 2001, K. P. sports teams had an awesome fall season. Kristy Lamothe and Judy Cronin led the girls' soccer team to a state championship. The girls' cross country team, led by Kristin McCann, Chrissy Cummings, and Sarah Fisher finished second in the Hockomock League, while the boys, led by Greg Whitehouse, Pete Getty and Justin Bourke finished third. The field hockey team, led by Meg Conley and Nicole Magnuson, entered the first round of the state tournament. Being a fall captain is a great honor. Many of the captains are also chosen to lead a winter and a spring sport. Because of their success, King Philip sports have earned much respect and recognition in the school, league and community.

Rock the Stands

Fall Cheerleading

The 2001 fall cheerleaders may not have the record to prove it, but they had a great season. They worked hard and dedicated many hours to be able to stretch the limits of what the cheerleaders have done in the past. They perfected stunts that they had never done before, and they got the chance to perform them in front of their fellow students. The girls have a lot planned for their winter season. They hope to accomplish even more than they did this fall.

Bring It

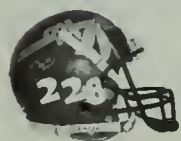

Boys' X-C

The boys' cross-country team had a successful season once again. With veterans and new talent, the boys were able to soar above many teams in the Hockomock League. The team owes the great season to hard work and to great coaching. The cross country team's coaches are active leaders in sports and the community. The team is also led by captains Pete Getty, Greg Whitehouse, and Justin Bourke who set examples for their teammates. The seniors left the 2002 team in good shape.

A Good Season

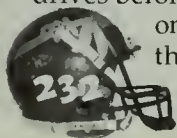

Field Hockey

The 2001 Field Hockey team had a winning season with a record of 7-6-5. The girls shone defensively as well as offensively, with a starting line-up of mostly seniors. With many talented senior players like Katy Robbins, Marissa Suchy and Amanda Strojny, the team dominated most of their games, and made it to the state tournament. Next year the team will be led by seniors Kristina Cochrane, Emily Greaves, Biz Cove, and Jenna Kraby. These juniors have already proved their success on the field and will have a great season next year.

Oh, What a Year!

Girls' Soccer

What an incredible season for the King Philip girls' soccer team! After a rough start with injuries and illnesses, the Warriors ended the first half of the season with a 3-4-1 record. The girls progressively improved with much hard work, dedication, and determination completing the second half of the season without a loss. They entered the tournament with high hopes of reaching a goal which until this point had been unattainable. Everyone contributed to the success ranging from the seniors' leadership to the impressive skills of the freshmen. The girls' intensity and teamwork carried them through numerous challenges and allowed them to take home a State Championship.

Girls' Basketball

Assistant Coach Pam Mulcahy, Heidi Krajewski, Judy Cronin, and Coach Tom Schmidt help lead the girls' basketball team to victories. Their talents enabled the team to play well enough to lead the League.

The girls' team had an amazing season as they dominated the other teams in the Hockomock League. Senior captains, Judy Cronin and Heidi Krajewski inspired their team to achieve first place in the League. However, on this team of outstanding players, there are no stars. Every player was essential to the success of the team. During the season, everyone in the school was aware of the girls' team's exploits and rooted for them all the way. This kind of support helps any team to be better, but for this team it made them unstoppable. With a strong block of underclassmen, the team will be a strong influence in the league for many years to come.

SAY IT LOUD (right)
Nichole Frederickson cheers loudly to support the boys' basketball team. Her cheery spunk gets the crowd on their feet, which motivates the basketball team to win.

FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT! (right)
 Newcomer, Caitlin Kenney, chants a cheer loudly from the gym floor. Even though she is only a freshman, don't be fooled. She is a spark on the team and the basketball court!

GO BIG GREEN! (below)
 The winter cheerleading squad shouts go big green loudly from the stands. The crowd, up on their feet, shouts back with enthusiasm. The vibrant cheers help the basketball team score more points. These girls are a power house in the stands.

Winter Cheerleading

K.P. Spirit

Cate Smith, Nicole Puddester, and Jill Malcolm are captains of this year's winter cheerleading squad. They possess the enthusiasm necessary to be top cheerleaders.

Go Big Green, reverberates loudly throughout the gymnasium as the winter cheerleading squad cheers loudly for the boys' basketball team. Their spirit and enthusiasm motivates the crowd to begin cheering with them, creating an environment filled with fun and excitement. Their peppy attitudes and huge smiles are apparent not just when they are cheering, but also during the day.

The King Philip cheerleaders inspire the school to have confidence and spirit in the athletic programs. Without the cheerleaders, basketball games would not be the same. The light, vibrant energy would not be present without them. They promote each basketball game by dressing in their uniforms the day of each game. The cheerleaders bring an important liveliness to the high school.

Hock Champs!

Gymnastics

The 2001-2002 gymnastics team had one of their best seasons ever. They had a winning, almost undefeated, record of 13-1. They ended the season being co-Hock champs. The girls spent the season continuously beating records that they had set, just meets before.

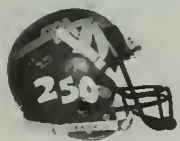

This was an amazing accomplishment for the girls this season. The records were set with the help of high scoring gymnasts like Rachel White, Lael Roye, and Jen Mackun. The future looks bright for this team as they prepare for next year.

Senior Jen Mackun holds her pose on the balance beam. This element requires much focus and poise, adding to the difficulty of her routine.

A perfect floor routine is performed by Lael Roye. This flawless performance will get her an awesome score.

HOLD ON TIGHT (below)
Amy Carr shows her amazing ability on the balance beam with a back walkover. This gives her routine a higher starting value, so she gets a higher score.

PATRIOTIC PLAYERS (above)
After September's events all of King Philip's athletic teams are very serious before the game when they honor our country during the National Anthem. Since the eye opening events of this fall, the student body has become more serious in respecting our country. The hockey team sets a great example for the entire student body and the crowd notices the team's pride and respect for America.

Jeff Dolan anxiously awaits the big game. Jeff's tedious preparations and tough warm ups will help him to defend his team on the ice.

Brrr... it's cold in here!
 There must be some
 Warriors in the atmosphere! Despite the freezing cold rink, our diehard King Philip fans never failed to provide support at each and every hockey game.
 Hockey still stands as one of the biggest spectator sports at KP.

This year the team lost many of last year's seniors. Nevertheless,
 King Philip's team, filled with underclassmen, has aimed high and done great! The seniors this year, Dan Gero and
 captain Jake Nyborn, lead the team with high aspirations. They will be missed next year!

Commitment to Excellence

Boys' Track

FLIES THROUGH THE AIR WITH THE GREATEST OF EASE... (above) Joe takes some practice runs through the 55 meter hurdles. The hurdles are an easy feat for Joe, a former gymnast. The hurdles require a great deal of coordination in addition to speed. Joe's gracefulness and long stride combine to make him an exemplary hurdler who is able to fly past other members of the league!

The Boys' Indoor Track team continued their tradition of excellence this year with another strong season. The boys soundly defeated rivals North Attleboro and Oliver Ames, proving their dominance in the league. They suffered a minor setback with the defeat by Franklin, but they were able to rebound and prove that they are a force to be reckoned with. Although there were many other strong teams in the Hockomock League this year, this team was able to establish itself as a premier organization. With the new addition of Coach Hearon, the team has only increased in strength and will be unstoppable in years to come!

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT (below)
Nicole Magnuson warms up by taking a few shot put throws. Her hard work and perseverance has led the team to many victories over the past four years.

Off on a Good Foot

Girls' Track

The girls' indoor track team began the season with an excellent start by beating a tough team, North Attleboro. Seniors returned confidently anticipating a memorable season. The team's hard work and persistence gives them strength and a big advantage over the other teams in the Hockomock League. Everyone has contributed to the reputation the team carries throughout the school, league, and community. This reputation has brought even more respect to the school, and lifted King Philip sports to an even higher level. The 2002 winter season reassured us that this reputation is still deserved and will last for many years to come.

HIGH WOMEN ON THE TOTEM POLE (above)
 Seniors Blair Rainsford, Nicole Magnuson, Megan Conley, Katelyn Small, Julie Lyon, Sarah Fisher, and Katelyn MacKenzie all played an essential role on the team this year. Since there were seniors who competed in every event, they were able to provide positive role models for all the members of this amazing team. In their four years at KP, the seniors have learned much about teamwork and dedication.

The Winning Spirit

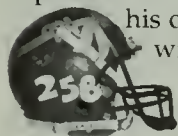

Wrestling

The 2001-2002 King Philip wrestling team had an amazing season. The wrestling team is one of the few teams in this school to pick their captains not by grade but by their dedication to the sport, and their drive to win. This year's team was led by captains Rich Chute, Shawn Sluss, Pete Katapodis,

Brian Hill and Travis Martin. Not only are the captains dedicated, but the coaches are committed, supportive and very well respected by the team. In comparison to other teams in the Hock League, KP's team is small, but that doesn't affect the team's ability to win.

Kristin Michele,
Congratulations! We bet you thought this day would never come. You have overcome so many obstacles that others will never know about, and for the grace of God, will never have to endure. Despite it all, you have grown into a beautiful, kind, and talented young woman who we are proud to call our daughter. Always remember how much you are loved, and we will always be there for you!

We hope you never fear those mountains in the distance, never follow in the path of least resistance....Remember to give faith a fighting chance, and when you have the choice to sit it out or dance;

I would like you to know that even though we fight, and argue with each other, that I don't know where I would be without you in my life as an older sister. You have played a major role in my life, and you have always been there for me when I needed someone to talk to about my problems. I knew I could always turn to you! I love when we go for a drive in your car with the music playing and we laugh and smile together... I will miss that! I wish you the best of luck at college, I will miss you very much and it will be hard for me to live without you.

I love you very much, Jeni.

Kristy & Kerry McKinney

It took generations and continents to come together to create two loving, caring and beautiful daughters.

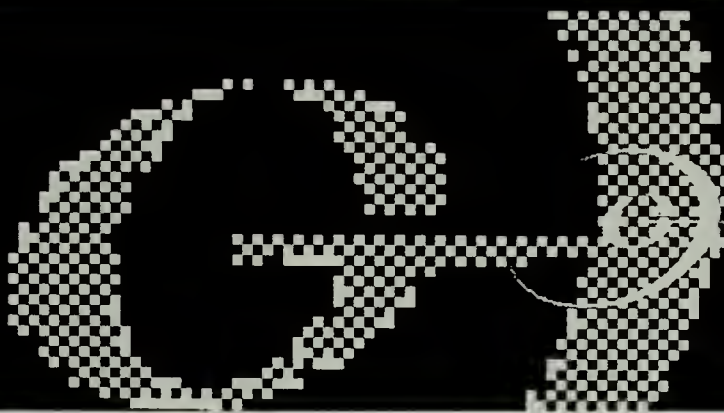

As you move forward, please remember the past as it holds the key to the future. So reach for your star and make a wish as dreams do come true!

Kristy and Kerry, you have always lightened up our lives with your smiles and lively spirits.

But most of all, today our love is with you on your journey into discovering the world that awaits you. You are the breath of fresh air we need.

We are so proud of you!

Live It Up, Class of 2002!

Many times in the last four years I've heard members of this class say, "Wait until you have to work with the Class of 2002. It's going to be awful!"—or—"I wish I were in the Class of 2001 (2003). They're so organized (co-operative, hard-working, friendly, and on, and on, and on)." Well, I've worked with the Class of 2002 for a whole year now, and I lived through the experience, and frankly, I don't know what the fuss was about. The Class of 2002 is made up of many different individuals, just like every class. And overall, I'd be the first to say that they are a great group of young people. So stop complaining and start enjoying yourselves. You only have a short while left as a member of this group before you go on to become identified with another number and another group of people. It's time to celebrate and "Live It Up!"

And to my staff, the producers of Chieftain 2002, I say again, "Live It Up!" Those Semi pages that refused to be printed, that cd that didn't have the retakes on it, the money management software that kept erasing all the files you had typed in, the amazing photo that jumped out of a file drawer and across the room, the class sign that the wind caught and tore to shreds as the photographer was snapping the class picture—they can't hurt you anymore. Someday, they may even be funny to remember. And think of the pleasure that your hard work will provide for so many people for so long. Parents and grandparents who will be able to reminisce about the year their son/daughter, grandchild was graduated from King Philip. Those same graduates, now parents of their own, showing their children what life in our country was like in the momentous days of 2001 and 2002. And think how much fun it will be to look back, wherever you are, and remember the innocent days of high school. Anyone who receives this yearbook will be grateful to you for your hard work.

And to all the people who make the yearbook successful, I say again, "Live It Up!" Celebrate how important you were to the production of this book. Our principal, Mike Levine, and our assistants, Elaine Hanson and Bill Rice—you do so much without even realizing it. Our secretaries who generate list after list, check schedules, direct phone calls, and take charge of our frequent deliveries—you are priceless. Don Hassell who delivers our proof pages with a malicious smile—we really enjoy your visits. The faculty and staff of the school also deserve praise. The year of a NEASC visit is especially difficult. Who needs even more questionnaires to fill out? And who need students coming late from yearbook, some day after day? We appreciate your understanding, and we thrive on the praise you lavish on us. Chestnut Hill Studios, our official photographer—you took on our undergrad photos this year and talked us into going digital. It was a rough start, but I'm so grateful for your gentle nudges. We needed to do that. Arnie Lohman, our Jostens rep—don't you dare retire until I do. We don't see you as much as we'd like anymore, but we know you're always available for advice. You bring such enthusiasm for all the new "bells and whistles" Jostens has to offer each year, and get us excited, too. Rick Brooks, our very own professional artist from Pennsylvania—how can we thank you for including King Philip when you come north to draw for Harvard and B.C.? Your visit is a highlight of the year. And to Sandy Moses, our "new" service rep. in Winston-Salem—a tremendous amount of gratitude. This was one tough year from a technical standpoint. If something could go wrong, it did. But you laughed with us on the phone and assured us that everything would work out, and as I write this, it has. And last, but not least, to anyone who lent us a photo, or your whole album—we couldn't do it without you. Parents of the Class of 2002—you had beautiful babies; thank you for sharing your photos and loving words. Students—we wish we could use every picture ever given to us, but it's not possible. Thank you for offering them to us.

And now on a serious note, the events of 9/11 must be recognized as having an effect even on a high school yearbook. We, like so many people, felt the need to proclaim our deep pride in this country. Students wanted to portray the American flag prominently on our cover and title page. They also felt it important to portray how King Philip responded to the crisis. They have memorialized everything from the car washes to the flag at half staff. But more importantly, they learned that life goes on. Fathers dance with daughters, teams win Hock and state championships, teachers teach, students learn and the Class of 2002 leaves us to achieve their dreams.
